Festival of Taste 2010

Join the Durbanville Boutique Wine Association (DBWA) in kicking off the 2010 harvest with a Festival of Taste in the gardens of Rust en Vrede in the heart of Durbanville on Sunday 28 February 2010 from 12 am onwards.

Someone once said that if you want to get something done, give the job to a busy person. In the spirit of these wise words, and with the 2010 harvest in full swing, the winemakers of the Durbanville Boutique Wine Association invite you to join them at what is believed to be the longest communal table ever to be hosted in Durbanville. The table, seating 120 people, will be served a four course lunch provided by the top restaurants of Durbanville and paired with the handmade wines of the Durbanville Boutique Wine Association.

Ample entertainment will be provided for the kids with a cupcake decoration activity sponsored by Vanilla House, a pizza building experience presented by St. Elmo's, fruit juices supplied by The Dairy Exchange and a jumping castle courtesy of Castle Mania.

For the gourmet grown-ups, lunch will commence with a starter course prepared by Gallery Café and Creative Cuisine. This will be followed by a fish course from the kitchen of Pistachio Restaurant, with the main course created by Eureka Receptions and Avocado Restaurant. A delectable dessert from Café Grano and Vanilla House will provide a grand finale to what will surely prove to be a memorable day.

Tickets cost R150 for adults and R40 for children under the age of 13 and are available at Gallery Café (021 975 7949) or Pen Café (021 975 6085). Profits generated will again be invested in the "Durbanville Farm Schools" project.

With tickets for the previous Festival of Taste being sold out within days, don't be caught off-side or risk the chance of being given a red card. Book your tickets today and join us in thinking global, but eating and drinking local.
